Editors' Comments

Most people don't realize the work, time, and effort that go into compiling the Mount yearbook. Those who do know are the ones who work on it. To these people we wish to express our gratitude.

To Sr. Mary and Mr. Garofano—our utmost thanks. Our Editorial and Business moderators, respectively, must have had a few sleepless nights wondering and worrying.

To the Editorial Board who worked to make this the best yearbook possible.

To the Business Board and its manager, Mary Flynn, Mary Jane McDonough and Eileen Sheehan, who drummed up all that wonderful money so that the Editorial Board could "do its thing."

To Mr. Norm Porter for his work on Senior individual pictures and class and club pictures. And to Mr. Bill Bartlett, who contributed his help on the Senior pictures.

To our own photographers, Tony Bellomo and Tom Gilligan, in the first part of the year, and later, Gerry Carbine and Sig Wysolmerski, for their good eyes and tricky fingers.

To our great faculty for their patience and understanding through the taking and retaking and retaking of pictures.

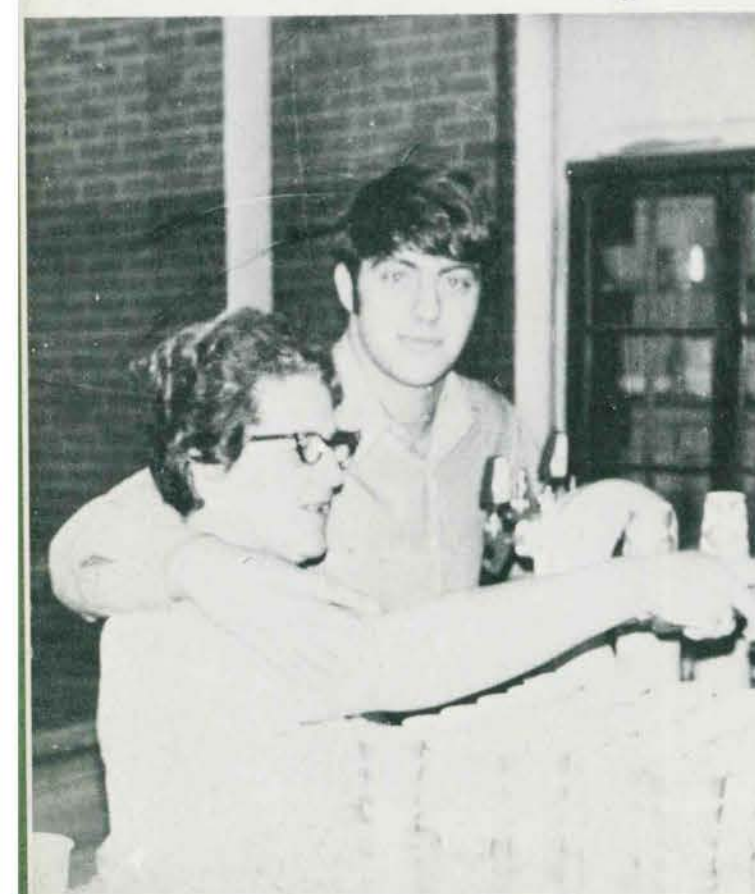

To our ever-enduring and hard-working principal, Fr. O'Connell, who put up with a lot from us.

And finally to the school itself and the fantastic kids in it for just being here.

For every star that falls
to earth a new one glows,
For every dream that fades
away a new one grows.
When things are not what they would seem
You must keep following your dream
Because another road
Is calling, I'll say good-bye.

Dedication

We wanted to write you some words you'd remember words so alert they'd leap from the paper and crawl up your shoulder and lie by your ears
and be there to comfort you down through the years.

We are what we feel, and writing it down seems foolish sometimes without vocal sound.
But by the time we thought of it, found a pen,
put the pen to ink, the ink to paper
our four years were gone.

So in place of empty words
we give to you, Mr. and Mrs. West—our 1970 Mount.

Principal's Message

To The Class of '70:

Especially at a time when private schools, locally and nationally, are experiencing financial difficulty, it is reassuring to know that the sacrifices of so many people have been well worth the effort.

Results, often intangible and difficult to measure, are evidenced through your growth in character, the ideals and goals you have set for yourselves, and the strong academic background that will accompany you after graduation. It has been gratifying for me to witness this development over the past four years.

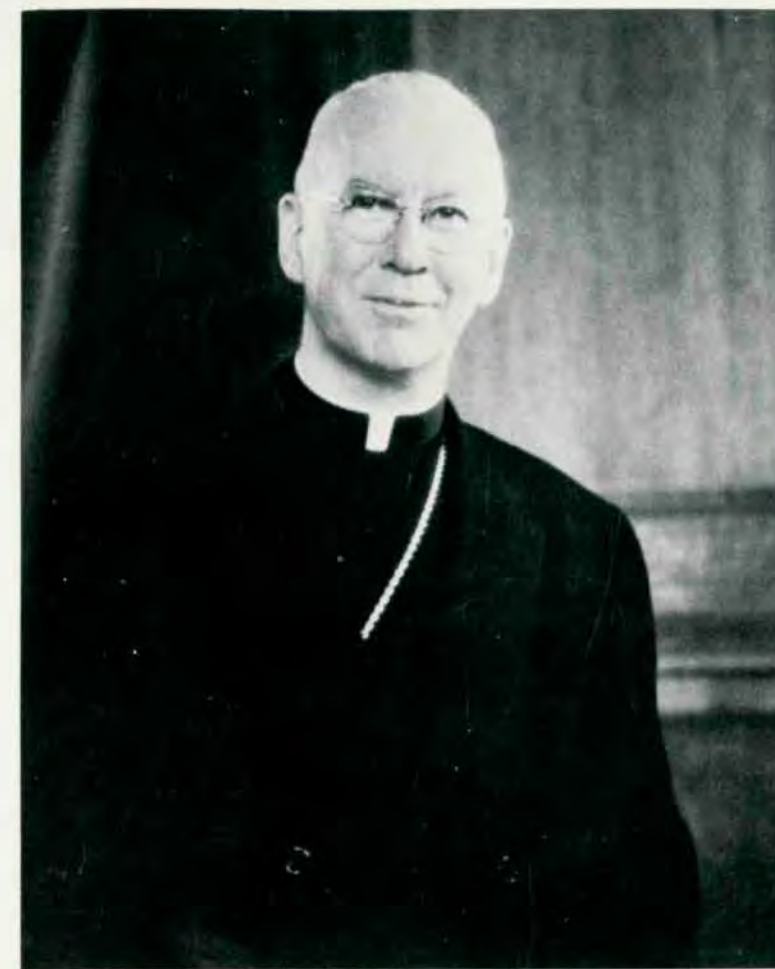

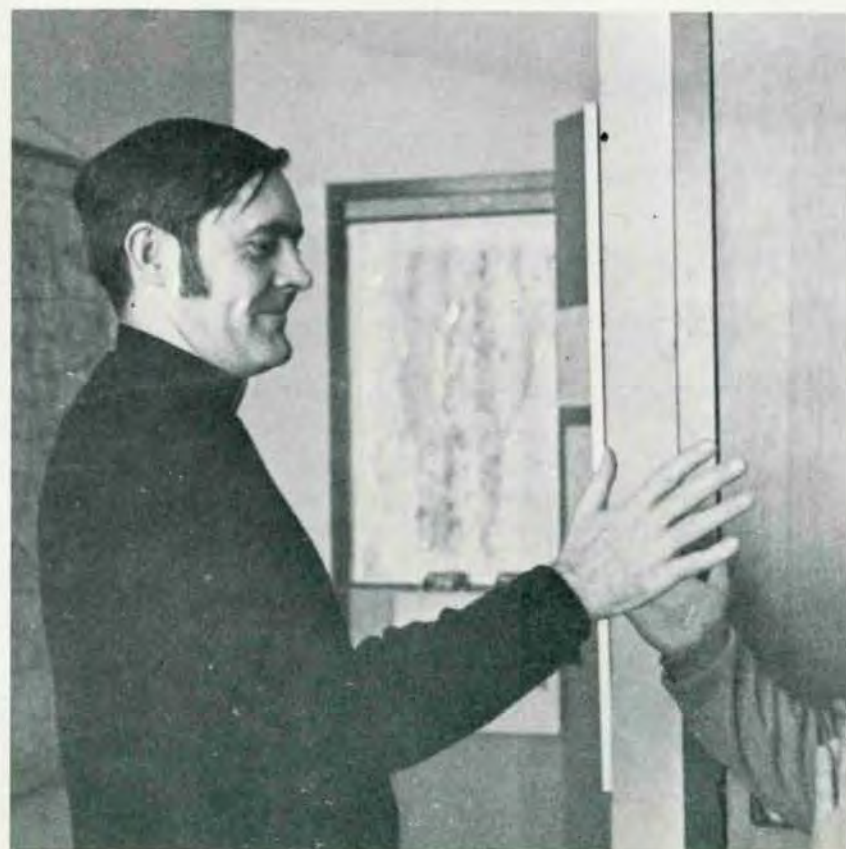

I hope that the Christian education you have received at Mt. St. Joseph will enrich your lives and give impetus to a life-long commitment of love and service to God and your fellow-man.

Sincerely,

(Rev.) John W. O'Connell

Guidance Department

"The guidance department exists to help the faculty and students in the learning process. It affords the student an opportunity to make educational, social and placement choices for the present and the future by individual and group procedures."

REV. RAYMOND LAMBERT
Head of the Guidance Dept.

"Dear God, help me with my next class!"
SR. MARY CLEMENTINE
English III, Library

English Department

"The English Department strives to give each student a practical knowledge of the English language as a means of communication, so that the student may convey his ideas clearly and correctly. A student must also appreciate the artistic quality of the language and its ability to create a proper perspective on life."

SR. MARY CLEMENTINE
Head of English Department

Math Department

"The aim of the Mathematics Department is to teach for understanding which includes imparting to the student an ability to read mathematics, in addition to developing principles and concepts which can be understood and applied in the future."

SR. MIRIAM TERESA
Head of the Mathematics Department

"Now, are there any questions? We will try to answer them." (we who?)

"A—I'm adorable,
B—I'm so beautiful
C—I'm?"
REV. RICHARD LAVALLEY
Religion I, II, III, IV

Religion Department

"The purpose of the M.S.J. Religion Department is to help our students become more aware of the loving relationship that can exist between God and man. To be a Christian means to have a loving, responsible relationship to one's self, one's neighbor, one's Church, one's community, one's family, and of course to one's God. Our aim is to teach 'the good news of salvation' in the spirit of Vatican II."

REV. RICHARD LAVALLEY
Head of Religion Dept.

Science Department

"The philosophy and purpose behind the planning of the science program are based on the new responsibility that calls for a wider appreciation and understanding of the nature of science, of the methods of science, and of the science heritage of our culture."

SR. RUTH GRAYSTONE
Head of Science Dept.

"Isn't this a rare specimen!"
SR. RUTH GRAYSTONE
Biology, Physiology

History Department

"The History and Social Science Dept. of M.S.J. focuses its efforts on aiding the student to develop an awareness and understanding of man in space and time. These courses attempt to create an identification with past life as a real extension of man while relating the student to other peoples and to the various institutions of society."

MR. JAMES DAVIDSON
Head of History Dept.

"If this doesn't blow your mind, I don't know what will."

American History, Contemporary Problems

"Where did you learn that word?"
SR. KATHLEEN FEENEY
Spanish I, II, III, IV; Girls' Sports

Language Department

"The Language Dept. aims to develop the four basic skills of speaking, understanding, reading and writing another language. This develops in the student an awareness of the complete interdependence of all mankind and also allows the student to see things from the point of view of another man of another culture."

SR. KATHLEEN FEENEY
Head of Language Dept.

STAPLETON, JUDITH

This year our school became quite involved in the community. One of these involvements was the canvassing and demonstrating for supporters of the Westphal Bill. This bill would provide support for private and parochial schools in Vermont. Over 7,000 signatures were given to the Senators from this area, Robert West, Andrew Orzel and Ellery Purdy.

Retreat

This year's Retreat was given by Fr. Donald Beane from New Mexico. Fr. Beane stressed to us the understanding that Christ was a human being as well as God. The celebration of Mass, closing the day of Retreat, left many of us with a better outlook toward our Christianity.

Sports

I was a young man then and played at young men's games. You should have seen me then, that time won't come again.

Returning to his Alma Mater, Coach Bizzarro led his boys to an impressive season stressing a tremendous defense which managed to overpower our opponents. The Mounties completed the season with an over all 15-5 record and also won the City Series. After winning the Southern Vermont Championship with an entire team effort, the Mounties advanced to the State Semi-Finals.

Congratulations to Jim DeRosia and Bill Comstock, who were named to the first SVL All-Star team.
